

INVITATION TO A BRIEFING FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER 2007, 11am

You are invited to attend a briefing following the publication of the Final Report by the Model Health Inquiry, which was commissioned by the British Fashion Council, on Friday 14 September, 2007.

Baroness Kingsmill, Chairman of the independent Model Health Inquiry and Hilary Riva, Chief Executive of the British Fashion Council, will be present at the launch of the Model Health Inquiry Final Report. The report contains recommendations relating to the health of models on the London Fashion Week catwalk.

Details of the briefing location and time are as follows:

When:

Launch event: 11:00 am

Date: Friday 14 September 2007.

Where: The Work Foundation, 21 Palmer Street,
London, SW1H 0AD

Who: Baroness Denise Kingsmill, Chairman of the Model Health Inquiry, together with Hilary Riva, Chief Executive of the British Fashion Council and members of the Model Health Inquiry Panel.

The following members of the Inquiry Panel will also attend the briefing and be available to answer questions:

Sarah Doukas	Founder of Storm Model Management
Betty Jackson	British fashion designer
Charlotte Clark	Director of INCA Productions
Paula Reed	Style Director, Grazia
Dr. Adrienne Key	Consultant psychiatrist

The Model Health Inquiry was established by the British Fashion Council in March 2007 to look into the health of models on the catwalks at London Fashion Week.

For further information, please contact the Model health Inquiry media team:

Michael Oke, James Devas, Nina Legge

T: +44 (0)20 7321 0000

Email: michael@aura-financial.com, james@aura-financial.com: nina@aura-financial.com

www.modelhealthinquiry.com

NB Broadcast media: cameras will not be admitted to the press briefing but separate one to one interviews will be conducted with Baroness Kingsmill following the briefing. Interested media should contact the media team in order to book interview slots following the photocall at The Work Foundation.